Ongava is committed to monitoring and amending our approach to travel, providing our guests both flexibility and security during the COVID 19 pandemic. The health and welfare of our guests, staff and their families will at all times continue to be our primary concern.

Ongava's Cancellation Policies are, as always, firm but fair. Whilst the global pandemic is official Ongava will review each booking where the guest has a COVID-19 specific circumstance individually and try to be as accommodating as possible.

The normal cancellation policy with standard terms and conditions and cancellation penalty will be applied until a booking with a COVID-19 specific circumstance can prove one of the following with reasonable written proof:

1. A Force Majeure event has occurred that has prevented the guest/s from travelling and the guest/s has submitted a claim to their Travel Insurance and such a claim has been declined. Reasonable written proof needs to be submitted.
2. The guest/s have embarked on their travels and have encountered one of the following circumstances en-route, which results in a last-minute cancelled booking. Reasonable written proof needs to be submitted of COVID-19 pandemic related travel disruption such as:

 - b. declined boarding at check in;
 - c. declined entry into Namibia;
 - d. imposed lockdown;

 - f. PCR COVID-19 test results not available within the timeframe;

For COVID-19 last minute cancelled bookings (7-days or less prior to arrival at the Ongava Game Reserve) our team will first offer the guest/s the opportunity to rebook new dates at the currently agreed rates and Ongava will offer value adds to the last minute COVID-19 Force Majeure affected rebooking with, wherever feasible, an incentive. This incentive can include a complimentary additional night stay, a complimentary service upgrade from DBB to FI, a complimentary accommodation upgrade, a complimentary Private Vehicle, etc. To qualify for the added-value incentive the booking must pay Ongava in full within 14 days. The invoice due will be the cost of the original booking that was cancelled, except in instances where a seasonal rate change has to be taken into account. Ongava will manage each cancellation on a case-by-case basis to determine the Complimentary offer and is entirely at Ongava's discretion. However, in instances where the COVID-19 affected Guests still declines to rebook then Ongava will honour the COVID-19 last minute all cancellation waiver.

These set of terms replace any previous releases and are applicable from December 2020. Ongava reserves the right to make changes to this amended Cancellation Policy terms and conditions at any time and will keep you informed.
